A look at the association and the RV lifestyle through the years, as portrayed in past issues of Family Motor Coaching.

FEBRUARY 1964, ISSUE 1

The title of Family Motor Coaching's first cooking column, "The Galley Slave," would likely raise eyebrows today.

Howard M. Fuller, F6, offered tips on how to avoid "the universal headache" - flat tires - on one's motorhome.

FEBRUARY 1969, ISSUE 1

Custom Coach Corporation announced its 40-foot

Land Cruiser "interior modification" for Challenger MC-7, GM 4903, and Silver Eagle bus shells.

FEBRUARY 1976

The October 1975 regional rally, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was hosted by the Rollin' Okies chapter and attended by more than 650 FMCA

The "incomparable" Executive motorhome from Executive Industries was advertised as offering "salon dining, posh reclining."

FAMILYMOTORCOACHING • FEBRUARY 2013 • MILEMARKER 50