

FMCA FLASHBACK

A look at the association and the RV lifestyle through the years, as portrayed in past issues of Family Motor Coaching.

JUNE 1976

Writer Jean Lovetang snags a monster trout at Alaska's Great Bear Lake.

Technical columnist Harvey Lawrence discusses installing a steering stabilizer in "Southern Comfort," his motorhome.

JUNE 1988

The Tiffin Allegro's all-steel-and-aluminum-cage construction is described in this ad, which touts, "Beauty Is More Than Skin Deep!"

JUNE 1996

FMC contributor Bill Hendrix outlines the DeLorme MapKit navigation program, which utilizes a CD-ROM and GPS technology.

Writer Lazelle Jones profiles Ken Scott, L63, FMCA's first executive director, and his wife, noting, "Dotty is a real sweetie, and I can understand why Ken married her during the early days of World War II."
